

READ

Read: Galatians 2:14-21

READING QUESTIONS

- What do you think caused Peter to begin insisting that Gentile Christians take on Jewish traditions?
- How might we be tempted to replace the written Law we have been freed from with another set of written laws?

This does not mean that we are now to behave lawlessly, or that Jesus' Gospel does not have any claim over how we should live.

Read: Galatians 5:13-25

READING QUESTIONS

- According to Paul, how are we meant to respond to our Christian freedom?
- How is the instruction to “walk in the Spirit” and descriptions of “fleshly acts” vs. “Spiritual fruit” different from a list of laws?

Read: Galatians 6:1-2

READING QUESTIONS

- In this passage, how does Paul write that we fulfill the “law of Christ?”
- How can we as Christians help one another walk according to the Spirit and obey the “law of Christ?”

We not only have the benefit of the Holy Spirit to guide our path—transforming us into the people we were always created to be—we also have the example of Jesus himself. We can gain insight into how we are supposed to live as we were intended by looking at how Jesus lived as he was meant to live. Read the following passages:

Read: Ephesians 4:20-25 and 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

READING QUESTIONS

- How do these passages address the question “how are we to live as Christians?”
- Given what we've discussed, how can we tell the difference between the law-making and the Gospel?
